To Whom It May Concern:

This is to inform you that brother Jimmy Daniel Pierre has been referred to Tabernacle Baptist Congregation (TBC) as a church where he would continue to explore his academic training and ministerial training.

As an intern at TBC, Jimmy has completed an agreement to spend three months during which he worked alongside the pastors, deacons, Sunday school teachers and other leaders of the church. Jimmy has demonstrated outstanding skills and functions independently with minimal supervision. Jimmy functions at a competent level highly typical of students in training for ministerial and academic calling. The church evaluated Jimmy's basic work habits, personal disciplines and reliability, he was found excellent in exercising understanding of ethical standards for a minister. He maintained appropriate professional behavior with the church members, he related well with the staff, always willing to participate in the church activities and sought to meet the church ministerial goals. He had a great personal appearance and demeanor. Jimmy demonstrated awareness and control of his own emotions and biases, he proved to be genuine, he displayed positive regard for people, empathy and maturity in judgment. Approach to learning was also evaluated. He had a very good attitude toward being trained. He kept his appointments and was timely. He prepared well to execute whatever task assigned to him. He related non-defensively to exhortations and feedback. He was quick to recognize errors and mistakes. He responded well to information, suggestion and criticism. Overall Jimmy demonstrated a level of professional readiness for ministerial tasks.

We trust that the information in this letter will be helpful to you as you begin the quest to assist Jimmy to meet his God's calling to ministry. We would like to let you know that TBC was very grateful to God, to Bob Jones University and to Jimmy for giving us this opportunity to foster this relationship and contribute to what the Lord is going to do in the life of his people with Jimmy. Also we want you to know that we are available and willing to assist you in any shape or form you are seeking to guide Jimmy as he is endeavoring to respond to God's call to ministry. It is our hope that you will find Jimmy's humble attitude, training and devotion be an encouragement to you as it was enriching for us and those he has ever come to contact.

Should you have any needs, questions and/or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us. We wish you all the best as you seek to set apart this young man of God for the ministry of the Gospel. The Lord is with you.

Sincerely,

Dr. Carlot Ducasse Celestin
Assistant Pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Congregation
