

Dear Pastor,

My purpose for writing is to recommend Jimmy Pierre for your consideration as a missionary worthy of scheduling at your church. I seldom write letters for someone who is not directly sent out of our church and I am not doing so at the request of Jimmy or his mission board. My personal experience with Jimmy during our recent mission's conference has prompted me to speak on his behalf.

I don't believe you will find a more humble and gracious man than Jimmy Pierre. He is a joy to be with and will be a blessing to your people. His preaching is from the heart and the enthusiasm of his soul is evident in the message he proclaims. He has a genuine burden to reach his own people in Haiti. He has withstood the temptations of materialism and comfort here in the States to return to his country to preach the Gospel of Christ through church planting. It's not often that we have Haitian men prepare for ministry here in the States and return to Haiti. I believe that nationals reach their own people best and I strongly urge you to consider having Brother Pierre at your church. Thank you for taking time to read this letter and may God richly bless your ministry.

Kind Regards,
